

Mysteries of Evergreen Park

- Moss on a log
- “feebee” call of a chickadee
- Recent buckthorn restoration
- Flooded Wetlands- dead trees
- 'Woodpecker Tree'
- Ducks on the pond
- Leopard frogs calling
- Glacial Rock
- Prickly Ash
- 360° view – Where could that be?
- Whistling of a cardinal
- Buds opening on Red Elderberry
- Deer Sign (trail/scat/rub)
- Woodpecker 'drumming'
- Crows calling
- Erosion from Mt. Biking
- Chorus frogs calling
- Canada Geese honking

Dragon Tree

Wild leek

Black Cherry

Bur oak with smooth bark fungus

Red oak - light and dark vertical lines going up the trunk

Kame – A hill formed by a glacier over 10,000 years ago. Commonly known as 'Skunk Hill'.

Oak Savannah – 'Big Woods' remanent. Once covered much of east-central MN.

Pileated Woodpecker

Buckthorn

Garlic Mustard

Turkey-tail fungus

Muskrat